

To Whom This May Concern,

6/12/2015

Robin Cushing has been our son's day care provider for almost 5 years. My husband and I would highly recommend Robin as a daycare provider as she is an outstanding caregiver that goes above and beyond expectations.

As first time parents looking for childcare for our 4 month old son in 2010, we were filled with trepidation and worry. My husband was overseas and I was making calls with my mom helping me. I was crying by the time I made it to the Robin's Nest listing in the phone book. When Robin answered the phone professionally and suggested that I come over for an interview, I felt some of the weight lifted off my shoulders. After meeting Robin and seeing where she cares for the children, I felt at ease and left telling my mom that I had found a safe, nurturing place for Ryker. I waited for my husband's call that evening and he said that if I felt it was the right fit, to go for it.

Dropping Ryker off that first day, I felt so comfortable knowing that he would be taken care of by Robin. I could tell after that first day that he was going to be happy and well cared for. It felt so good to know that Ryker was in Robin's hands when he couldn't be with us. When my husband met Robin, he knew also that it was a perfect fit for our family.

Robin is very caring, loving, organized, structured, reliable, and fun. She has many years of experience that show with her care of the children. She genuinely cares about the kids and has endless patience. She made the day to day experience enjoyable and helped Ryker learn many new things. She helped my husband and I as new parents figure out how to wean from the bottle, get rid of the pacifier, potty train, among many other things. She also helped Ryker learn his ABC's, colors, shapes, numbers, and sight words.

He has enjoyed his time at Robin's Nest so much and made many friends. Robin has truly been an essential part of helping Ryker come to his full 5 year old potential. She has encouraged him and taught him so much.

Robin has become a part of our family. We are not quite sure what we will do without her on a day to day basis and we plan to visit as much as possible.

We strongly, without reservation, recommend Robin as a child care provider. Any child that gets to spend time with Robin will be happy and fulfilled.

Sincerely, Kerry and Jordan Chicoine
